TOO MUCH OTHER WORK

IMPROVEMENTS TO BE MADE AT SALTAIR.

After all, Saltair is to be the only one ments were served.

ASYLUM COTTAGES.—A meeting of the governing board of the state linsane nounced yesterday that there is no probability of the Oregon Short Line opening Garfield. The reason is given that the company has too much work on hand to admit of the broad-gauging of the Garfield branch between now of the Garfield branch between now and the beginning of the bathing season.

The to a month ago the Short Line fully intended reopening the resort. The company had even commenced hauling the line, and had made some negotiations for having the pavilion put is shape, after its season's idleness. But the order to begin construction at Ilvada, following the previous determination to rush the Blackfoot-Houston to rush the bound of the rush the receive of the receive of the receive of th was ordered south with all possible speed, and just as rapidly as new steel can be secured it will have to be sent south or up to Bixkfoot. Under these circumstances it would require most of the summer to standard-gauge the line between here and the beach, hence the decision that Garfield shall remain closed another season.

This decision means, too, that the Leamington cut-oil will not be built this summer as the new line is to go around by darfield.

Improvements at Saltair. Improvements at Saltair.

Meanwhile the greatest activity is being displayed by the Sartair management. There are to be a number of improvements at Saltair this summer. One of them is a portable rand stand. Considerable difficulty has been experienced in former years on account of the wind, its course being such at times that the music could not be heard in parts of the dance pavilion. In order to obviate this, the portable stand, capable of being moved into any part of the hall, will be installied.

Salt Lake and Ogden Lodges Join in Entertainment.

The Salt Lake and Ogden Eagles foined forces in a grand-ball and banens' hall last night, and the god of pleasure reigned supreme from early twilight to early morn. The Ogden Engles, a hundred strong, came in last evening on a special train and immediately repaired to the dance hall, where, beneath the spreading wings of their emblem bird spreading wings of their emblem bird and amid the soft glow of tinted lights, they listened to a splendid programme of music and tripped the light fantastic until called to the spread that awaited them in the dining hall. The hall was prettly decorated with streamers of evergreen and fastoons of red, and with the merry crowd of Eagles and their ladies that thronged the floors it presented a scene of pleas.

VERDICT OF SUICIDE.

Inquest Held Over Body of Paul Hoeft.

An inquest was held yesterday morning over the body of Paul Hoeft, the engineer who suicided last Sunday morning by swallowing a dese of morphine. The verdict of the jury was Robert Mulhall, B. Hamill and Morris Levy. The state was represented by County Attorney Christensen, and the following witnesses testified to the particulars of Hoeft's death: Miss Madeline Crandall, the proprietor of the rooming house; Dr. Mayo, Alice Savinberg and Ivan Jones. Dr. Mayo testified that the young man's death had been caused by an overdose of morphine and the other witnesses testified as to the conduct of Hoeft on the evening he took ine drug.

The body of the young man is at the undertaking pariors of S. D. Evans and

A large number of the firemen were present and spent a most pleasant evening. During the evening light refreshments were served.

CURBING HANGS FIRE.—At yesterday's special meeting of the board of public works, called to prepare matters for presentation to the city council last evening, it was voted to defer awarding the contract for constructing standard curbing on the north side of South Temple street, from State to E. until it is definitely known whether the proposition will carry to pave the north half of the street. It was suggested at the meeting that ofte of the car tracks might be placed on the upper half of the street instead of having both tracks on the lower side, as they are now, and a change might necessitate some modifications in the plan to construct curbing.

Chance For Everybody to Entertain McKinley.

MESSAGE TO CORTELYOU

ENTERTAINMENT GOVERNED BY PRESIDENT'S WISHES.

Governor Wells and Mayor Thompson attempted to collaborate yesterday on the appointment of committees to look after the reception and entertainment of President McKinley. They made a little progress and then decided to postpone the naming of the committees until this afternoon. A telegram was sent to Secretary Cortelyou, asking him to name the form of entertainment the president will desire for his Sunday in

The secretary was requested to state The secretary was requested to state whether President McKinley would accept a carriage ride about the city Sunday afternoon, and if he would pay a visit to the tabernacle. Until an answer is received to the inquiries the plans will be more or less in the air. Mayor Thompson said yesterday afternoon the committees would probably be big enough to form unbroken lines on both sides of Second South street from Main street to the Rio Grande Western depot. Anybody who has the slightest excuse for being appointed is pfacticially sure to get on. In order practicially sure to get on. In order to make this possible it is proposed to divide the committees up.

Duties of Committees. To one will be assigned the duty of meeting the distinguished guests at the train. Another will look after the carriage ride, if there is one; a third will see to the tabernacie services, and a fourth will busy itself "markin" an medjurin"." That is, in a general oversight of everybody else.

Owing to the hour of President Mc-Kinley's arrival here, 8:30 o'clock in the morning, it will be impracticable, even if it were not against his expressed wish, to meet him at the state line. The chief executive has repeatedly stated that he wants committees to meet him only at places where he intends to stop. The limited accommodations on his special train make it impossible for him to entertain the "favorite sons" who would like to travel To one will be assigned the duty of vorite sons" who would like to trave a hundred miles or so with him.

G. A. R. Escort. It is probable that a feature of the entertainment of the president here will be a guard of honor to be furnished by the G. A. R. Colonel, M. M. Kaighn, department commander, said yesterday department commander, said yesterday that he had not communicated with Governor Wells on the subject, but he presumed the old soldiers would be allowed to escort President McKinley, their fellow member of the Grand Army. "I will take the matter up with the governor tomorrow." Colone Kaighn went on. "The members of the G. A. R. have held no meeting on the subject as yet, but they wife probably G. A. R. have held no meeting on the subject as yet, but they will probably hold one in the near future at which they will consider the question."

This afternoon Governor Wells and Mayor Thompson will complete their committees and give out the lists of names. They may also appoint subcommittees to see that the cabinet members and other distinguished guests, as well as the representatives of the press, are cared for in a proper manner.
